EXECUTIVE MEETING

September 14, 2022

Old Business: The President starts a discussion regarding the 4 executive shirts that were ordered. They have arrived and Director Gerry is given his. The Scorekeeper is given Director Rob's to give to him later in the week. Both the President and the Vice-President are given theirs. The total cost to get these shirts is $276.87 and a cheque is issued to the President by the Treasurer.

The President starts a discussion regarding the redesign of the league website. The quote given by Ben G. is read. After a lengthy discussion it is determined that the Scorekeeper will obtain one or two more quotes from other companies and report back at the next meeting.

The Treasurer starts a conversation regarding the surplus of league funds and it is decided that this will be tabled until the next meeting.

The Vice-President starts a discussion regarding league set-up costs and requests a reimbursement cheque of $367.08 to cover the costs.

New Business: The President starts a conversation regarding the Longshots and a player addition/removal issue. After a long discussion it is determined that the President will contact the team and resolve this issue.

A discussion is started regarding the cost of apparel and after a long discussion it is decided that a couple outside vendors will be contacted to determine current rates.

A discussion is started regarding the league lock-up and the arrangement that was worked out with the Ladies League to also utilize this space to help reduce their league costs. It is decided and agreed by all parties that the ladies will reach out to Director Ken and he will accompany them to the lockup when they require access.

The President starts a discussion regarding the league helping Trevor P. by means of a donation of $500.00 to help with his costs to go compete in the World Youth Championships taking place in Wigan, UK in October. A motion is put forward by the President to give a one-time $500.00 donation to Trevor P. to be put towards his costs to compete in the World Youth Championships, this is seconded by the Treasurer and is passed unanimously.

The Treasurer starts a discussion regarding the league helping Jim L. by means of a donation of $500.00 to help with his costs to go compete in the World Masters taking place in England in December. A motion is put forward by the Treasurer to give a one-time $500.00 donation to Jim L. to be put towards his costs to compete in the World Masters, this is seconded by the President and is passed unanimously.
