Secretary started a conversation that the L.D.M.D.L mailbox has been removed from the Victory Legion wall, and will look into other options or venues for it. For the time being, members will put in Secretary's personal mailbox at his residence. Also mentioned if we could possibly share it at a mutual venue location with the London Ladies Dart League. This proposal was turned down due to possibility of paperwork and/or money going missing.

He mentioned that there is a venue that will accept new team(s) 427London Wing on Crumlin Rd. One team is willing to move there & will be contacted by the Executive to arrange this. The other team will be contacted & given a choice if they wish to move or stay in their current venue.
